

Letter to the Shaman Keepers of the Anasazi Tribe

We consider it is necessary to inform you of very important news. We believe the time has come for great events to happen. That is why it is essential to outline the reasons that moved us to write this letter.

Our Path of Self-Development

In our search for methods of personal development we came across the teachings of Drunvalo Melchizedek. We met Drunvalo during one of his workshops and received an invitation to participate in the Southwest Holyland Pilgrimage of America.

Fifty-six people came from all over the world to do that work. Together we traveled through Arizona, New Mexico, Colorado and Utah. We visited places that are usually not open to public, where shamans and wise men led us in extraordinary ceremonies. One of them was the process of building a big medicine wheel, which afterwards would be protected by the keepers of the Hovenweep Land.

Learning about the Holy Place.

We learned about the mysterious underground tribe of Anasazi and an Indian tribe living in the mountains that protected that holy place, the place of Spider Woman.

In the Antelope Canyon, Darwin, a blind shaman who drove us back and forth to the canyon, explained that he was very pleased with what we were doing and told us that it would result in rain in 5 days' time. He was correct.

Having passed different shaman ceremonies, we were admitted to the inmost places and received initiations and consecrations.

Meeting Sara

One of the fifty-six people of the Southwest Holyland Pilgrimage of America was the clairvoyant shaman Sara Chapin. We clicked with her right away, talked about all sorts of subjects and spent most of the time together. Without being aware of the exact aim that was behind it, we invited her to the Netherlands to give a workshop. So she came and stayed with us in our more than 300 years old home in the city called Krimpen.

Sara was a clairvoyant with many phenomenal abilities.

One evening we ended up in an exceptional conversation about life. It felt as if we knew each other for ages, bonded like a family. That night Peter mentioned V.M. Bronnikov. He told her that he was contacting him and that we were very interested in his method. Sara gave us a document from the international conference in Saint Petersburg. There was her name and Bronnikov's name, both were announced as speakers. That was how we found out that Sara knew V.M. Bronnikov.

The same night Sara got into a coma, she was diabetic and her blood sugar fell too low during that night. We found her the next morning, she was taken to the hospital and died a couple of days later.

Before she died she told us that an important mission was awaiting her in the Netherlands. For that purpose, she brought 13 magic tuning forks with her, along with many other magic shamanic attributes.

Meeting V.M. Bronnikov

That same year we were invited by V.M. Bronnikov to join his international conference in Feodosia. Upon our arrival, we were welcomed by a big delegation. At the Bronnikov center we received a warm welcome from V.M. Bronnikov himself, and the head of the Russian Orthodox Church in Moscow. After getting acquainted and a very interesting conversation, he gave us a special tour on the premises and introduced us to his family. Everything was well organized. Even though we could only do Level 1 of his method 'Ecology of Spirit', we felt a huge potential that was behind it. The time we spent in Feodosia was very special, as if we had found a long-lost part of our family, even though we could not communicate without an interpreter. It was a great honor for us to participate in the blessing ceremony that Father Feodor performed at the Bronnikov Center. When we left after the conference and classes were over, we all had tears in our eyes and it felt as if we were leaving our family behind.

V. M. Bronnikov, an expert in opening the 15th reality

Vyacheslav Mikhailovich Bronnikov was born and grew up in the Holy Place of Power in Feodosia by the Church of Archangels Michael and Gabriel, in the place of the Dragon Power, next to the Church of the Impulse of the Holy Spirit, the birthplace of new ideas.

He is a descendant of the ancient family of Coronello, a Spanish family of Templars. It was the family of keepers of Templar knowledge. The family produced 7 inquisitors, one of them was the chief inquisitor of Spain, his godfather was Charles V. On the other side of the family, his ancestors were blacksmiths of ceremonial weapons from the city of Bogoroditsk in Tula Region (Russia).

Vyacheslav Mikhailovich was taught by 12 teachers, he possesses universal knowledge.

Vyacheslav Mikhailovich receives requests from Kazakhstan dervishes, clairvoyant people, shamans of Yakutia (Russia) to open places of power and holy places in different countries. He also leads a scientific research program 'Geography of Fine Material World'.

Center of Spiritual Powers in the Netherlands

The first time V.M. Bronnikov visited us in the Netherlands, he said that there was a very important Center of Power with a strong cosmic energy stream. A few months before we bought a new house in the village of Loosdrecht. It turned out that the Center of Power was located very close to our new house. The Bronnikov experts with Psychobiocomputer vision informed us that our mission was to be the keepers of this Center of Power, and for that we needed to receive a 'white stone'. Then we remembered the crystal that Peter received some years ago from the Russian shaman during a ritual in Feodosia.

- On the last day of the Southwest Holyland Pilgrimage, a special ceremony was held and Peter received a very peculiar stone there. He had kept it all the time until we were asked to bring something for a ritual in Feodosia. Peter brought that stone and it was used in the ritual performed by a Russian shaman in the place of power in Feodosia. After the ritual, the shaman said that Peter's stone from America would be needed for opening certain gates during his work in Crimea. As an exchange for Peter's crystal, he gave him the 'white stone', which was chosen by Peter. The shaman said that the 'white stone' crystal was the keeper, and it was important to bury it in the place of power near his home in the Netherlands. -

So, the 'white stone' crystal was buried and it turned out to be the key for the Center of Power in the Netherlands. After several rituals, Peter and I became the keepers of the 'Place of Power'. Every time we would go to a special place or get involved in an unusual situation, the Keeper's crystal would be with us, and we performed rituals with it. It created a deep connection with many places and important situations in the world.

Due to this cosmic stream, the Netherlands were an influential country in the past, and all the knowledge, technologies and products were spread from the Netherlands throughout the world. Over time, this spreading stream was reversed and it was important to change it back again to its original activity. The ingredients for the ritual came by themselves. The first item was a gift from 'Mahasons'. A representative of the Voodoo Center in India came over who travelled a long way from India to bring a certain connection and information. Then we found out that Sara was waiting for us in our old house in the fine material sphere. It turned out she never left it. In our old house, in the bedroom where Sara fell into a coma and exited her body into the fine material sphere, we placed artifacts so that Sara could interact with them. Then we made contact with her using her ritual objects. Bronnikov moved Sara into my body, the body of Jolanda. On the way back I felt very heavy and a little numb. To be sure that I stayed conscious, Bronnikov asked me to remember as much as I could about Sara, about the time we spent together. When we came back to the Center of Power, Bronnikov performed a ritual to transfer Sara from my body into the earth. Sara's amethyst crystal was buried at the center. A circle was formed with the 13 tuning forks (another one of Sara's artifacts) in a certain way. One of them was placed in the center with 12 others around it in a circle. The vibrations of the tuning forks activated the process and created a special cosmic descending stream of energy from the star Vega. Many essences participated in that process.

Rituals in Feodosia

During the past 13 years we participated in many rituals in Feodosia. The first one was connected with the scepter of Hermes Trismegistus, and was performed in the church of Michael and Gabriel. It is an Armenian church next to the Bronnikov Center. There were several rituals performed by the Russian shaman in various places on the premises and in the Chapel of the Bronnikov Center, in Armenian monasteries, in ruins, on the mount of Mithridate (the Sacred Mount near the Bronnikov Center where Hermes Trismegistus VI is buried), at the Golden Gate and at Karadag. Very impressive was the transfer ritual when Hermes Trismegistus had to be transferred in the body of the Native American who came to Feodosia from America specifically for that purpose. The ritual was connected with preparations for the birth of Hermes Trismegistus VII.

A few years ago Bronnikov was asked to participate in very important rituals in the Buddhist Monastery in Saint Petersburg due to his special connection with Palden Lhamo, the Green Tara. He was asked to perform a ritual devoted to this deity, in Feodosia. We also took part in this ritual and brought with us Sara's handmade earth-drum, candles, the specially for us made crystals from the US that are connected with Kabala. The purpose of the ritual was to create the outflow of the Netherlands stream in Feodosia, and then to return it back to the Netherlands. In order to accomplish that process, we had to dig out Sara's amethyst crystal and place it together with the Keeper's crystal and the tuning forks in the Feodosia Center, in the place of power. During the rituals a certain structure was created, and Sara came to Feodosia through the stream to activate the control over the stream in both directions.

For one of the rituals in Feodosia, the experts asked us to bring a 'thread'. We did not know what that meant, until I remembered my experience at the Buddhist Stupa in the Netherlands.

-We visited the Stupa in the Netherlands and had an appointment with the Lama. While sitting on the bench in front of the Stupa, waiting for the Lama, I decided to do some Bronnikov exercises in the mask; under the Stupa I saw a structure, it was golden yellow, and looked like an upside down crown. It extended in the earth like roots. Then I went to my construction points and saw a yellow line that was moving from the relic of the third Buddha to me. Then a yellow line from the fourth Buddha to me.-

When I told Bronnikov about this, he called his experts and we all worked together in our masks, using Psychobiocomputer vision (deep vision). He led us back to the Stupa and we found the connections from the third Buddha to the second Buddha, all the way to the first Buddha. Thus, four Buddha's were organized.

From those four Buddha's the connection went to Bronnikov. We knew that Bronnikov was the fifth Buddha. The 'White Throne' was revealed, it became active and connected to the Center of Power in the Netherlands, thus intensifying the entire process.

Connection with Spider Woman

During one of our visits to Feodosia, we told V.M. Bronnikov about America and the Anasazi tribe. Vyacheslav Mikhailovich told us that for a very long time he had been preparing to go to America with a special mission. He has the key that activates an underground civilization. He draws a picture of how the environment looks like, how it can be reached, as well as other details. Peter and I were very surprised as we recognized Spider Rock in his drawing.

Now we see the connection between Spider Rock and the Spider System that Bronnikov is teaching to us; he is the bearer of the 'Queen Spider' (the Original one).

We believe, we saw that connection, V.M. Bronnikov is the man for whom Spider Woman of the Anasazi tribe is waiting.

The shamans that guard this ancient place need to check this connection, to see the necessity of Bronnikov's work in America that will help to bring out the Anasazi tribe and Spider Woman, to active the planetary system of world transformation into the 15th reality.

This is the reason why we are trying to tell you in short about this important news and the mission, that V.M. Bronnikov needs to perform in America.

Sincerely,
Jolanda van der Bruggen and Peter Kamp,
The Netherlands
